CHAIRMAN MORRISON.

HADN'T TIME TO ASK PRECINCT OFFICERS TO WORK FOR NOTHING.

Chairman Allie Young of the state executive committee has written County Chairman C. W. Morrison of the Democratic committee relative to election officers, and asked him if he could not arrange with the precinct officers to serve for nothing at the primary May 9. As there are about seventy-five of the precinct committeemen, Chairman Morrison replied that he had no time to go over the county soliciting committeemen to work for nothing.

STRUCK WAGON

HORSE KILLED AND THE DRIVER HAD A CLOSE CALL LAST NIGHT.

One of the wagons of the Jake Biederman Grocery and Bakery company was struck last evening early at Ninth and Trimble streets by a string of freight cars on the Illinois Central, and the horse had a leg run over and broken. James Gentry, the driver, probably escaped injury from the fortunate circumstance that his wagon lacked about a foot of being in the way of the cars. It is claimed the cars were detached from the engine, a running switch being made. The horse had to be killed.

HORRIBLE CRIME

WOMAN CONFESSES TO KILLING HER HUSBAND.

Monticello, N. Y., Feb. 10—Mrs. Lafayette Taylor of Centerville, Sullivan county, confessed to having killed her husband, Lafayette Taylor, and burning the body on January 25 to escape detection. Taylor disappeared on the night of January 25 and was supposed to have deserted his family. February 6 Mrs. Taylor attempted to sell a horse to a Centerville man, who would not buy for fear Taylor might come back and claim it. Mrs. Taylor told him to rest easy on that point, had killed him and burned his body.

The 14 year old daughter of the Taylors was asked about the story her mother had told about having killed her father. She said the story was true. Mrs. Taylor was arrested and today made a full confession. She was so frightened for fear of being arrested for murder that she decided to cut up the body and burn it. Her 14 year old daughter witnessed the shooting and helped her to cut up the body in small pieces with an ax and burn it in the kitchen stove, together with the clothing of the victim. The burned bones were ground fine and fed to the hens. The blood spots were covered up with paint.

The Taylors lived on a farm a mile from the main road and the chances of discovery were few. Mrs. Taylor is about 40 years old.

NAME SATISFACTORY

LA CENTER PROMOTERS TO PROCEED TO BUSINESS AT ONCE.

The promoters of La Center, one of the towns to be established on the new Cairo division of the Illinois Central, have been notified by both the postal authorities and the Illinois Central railroad that their name "La Center" is satisfactory. Meriville was the first name chosen, and later Ballard Center was selected but these names did not please the railroad and La Center was then suggested.

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the township, and the following directory has been decided on, but not formally chosen: Harry L. Meyers, J. Andy Bauer, Stokes Payne, E. W. Smith, Charles E. Jennings, of this city, and Dr. J. D. Rollins and Mr. W. H. Clats of near Hinkleville. The officers designated for future ratification are: J. Andy Bauer, president; Stokes Payne, vice president and general manager; and Charles E. Jennings, secretary and treasurer.

TRAIN ROBBER

MARSHAL McNUTT MAY BE ON HYATT'S TRAIL.

Marshal Charles McNutt, of Mayfield, arrived in the city yesterday looking for information that may prove valuable to him and which may be the means of the capture of Hyatt, the criminal who escaped from the Nashville penitentiary and who is supposed to have been the man who committed the recent holdup of the L. and N. train in Louisville. McNutt has been quietly at work on the case and thinks that he has his man located and is here to secure information relative to this case.

BITTER FIGHT ENDED.

Madisonville, Ky., Feb. 10—Robert B. Bradley, who is the present representative of this county in the state legislature, has been nominated by the Democrats in a primary election by a majority of 178 over Robert Furgerson. D. W. Gatlin had no opponent for circuit court clerk. The race for representative was a bitter one, both candidates dealing in personalities in newspaper correspondence and speeches.

THE PENSION BILL

EX-CONFEDERATES IN FAVOR OF SENATOR HANNA'S PLAN.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 10—At the regular meeting of R. E. Lee camp, United Confederate Veterans, a resolution indorsing in part Senator Hanna's bill to pension old ex-slaves was introduced by State Historian Judge C. C. Cummings and passed by an almost unanimous vote.

There was some objection on the grounds that the resolution might be construed as political. It urges that all Texas representatives in congress support the Hanna measure to the extent of rewarding all ex-slaves who remained at home within the ages set forth in the bill, or those who went with their masters in the war of local independence, but that those be excepted who were enlisted in the United States volunteer service and are already on the pension list.

JEWISH CHURCHES.

A MOVEMENT TO ESTABLISH THEM IN EVERY COMMUNITY.

Cincinnati, Feb. 10—Nine of the thirty members of the executive board of American Hebrew Congregations met here at the Hebrew Union college. A movement was started to establish Jewish churches in every community in the United States. In the larger towns synagogues will be built and rabbis stationed. Sabbath schools will be established. In communities where there is a lack of wealth necessary to support a church, circuit rabbis will be provided, who at stated intervals will visit the community and conduct religious services.

That the matter might be given a more thorough consideration a committee was appointed to report at a special meeting April 19.

DYERSBURG TO BE DRY.

SALOON MEN ARE TO QUIT JULY 1.

Dyersburg, Tenn., Feb. 10—Dyersburg is going to surrender her charter and re-charter without whiskey. There will be no election to ascertain the wishes of the people as it is very evident that the people are against the saloon. The whiskey men accept their defeat, and by arrangement with the authorities will close out their business and quit selling liquor here on the 1st day of July next. They are accorded to that date for the purpose of closing out their stock or seeking other fields. Great credit is due Rev. H. W. Brooks and the other pastors of this city for the molding of public sentiment on temperance lines.

Thirteen Fateful to Fair.

Margaret Lugin, the maid of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair, who, with her husband was killed in France in an automobile accident, arrived in New York recently in the second cabin of the steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm, on her way to San Francisco to be married. She had with her Mrs. Fair's poodle dog. She said that the dog had cried all the way across, thinking that its mistress was on board. The maid attributed the death of the couple to their marriage on the thirteenth day of the month and their departure from San Francisco on the thirteenth day of the month, and that the fateful date was again marked by the arrival of their bodies in San Francisco on Sept. 13.—New York Tribune.

Navigation of St. Lawrence.

The St. Lawrence river is frozen four months of the year, and its navigation is so difficult that an average of one steamer a month is wrecked in its waters.

Timmie's Appetite

I never knewed a boy with sich an appetite as Tim! It seems t' me he's always hungry—and that slim, you wouldn't think there was room enough to hold it all in him. Lands alive! I used t' bake all day—just for Tim— Aunt Amandy always said "It's just a pesky whim"— But then I knowed his father and Tim's just like him. So I kept on a-bakin' 'till one day I got some light as to how the other neighbors kept the waist bands tight. Instid of bakin' all day long and mixin' half the night They kept Uneeda Biscuit on the cupboard right in sight—and that's the way I finally conkered Timmie's appetite.

Mark Twain's Parents. The local tradition remembers the father of the humorist, "Squire" Clemens, as a good and peaceable citizen. He brought to the town with him his wife and children and nothing unusual is remembered of the family, except that Mrs. Clemens had a peculiar and interesting drawl in her speech. When her son lectured in the town theater she called the attention of the neighbors to the fact that "Sam" had a mighty long drawl to his talk, and she wondered where in the world he got it. Whereupon an old farmer remarked: "If the dam is a pacer, you will very likely find an amble in the colt." They brought their children up as well as circumstances would allow, considering three things—the civil war, the west on the river, and the children. It is generally believed that Aunt Polly in "Tom Sawyer" was "Sam's" own mother, and that Tom was Sam. If this is so, one can almost read the family history in that captivating little book.

Railroad Gardens Increasing. The general adoption of flower gardening by all leading American railroads is at most but a short way off. An unexpected enlargement of this branch of railroad evolution is apparent this season. On trunk line east of Chicago alone last spring distributed 30,000 blooming plants to station agents.

The smallest stations are receiving as much attention as the larger ones, in fact, the scope of this development is to include even the surroundings of the freight offices and in many instances the flagman's shanty, and the American passenger is to look out upon a profusion of nature's beauties at every regular stop.
